Let's do it. I think we should do a brainstorming session with the FOIA team. I think making them a part of developing the project might help with some of the stress issues. What do you think? If you agree, Lynn can set up a meeting with team for the week after the inauguration.

Dear all –As you know, Rick has asked to hear a presentation of our A3s. During our January 21 Monthly Business Review, could you please be ready to spend a few minutes discussing your A3? Thanks.
